With the consolidation of the cities of Newport News and Warwick, many new students entered our school in September. Others who came into our community to live also enrolled here. With mixed feelings of apprehension and excitement, these newcomers found their places in N.N.H.S. They shared in our quest for more knowledge, co-operated in our student government, strengthened our clubs, entered into the spirit of our assemblies, and participated in our various sports.

Together we have had many memorable experiences—moments of joy and sorrow, work and play, success and defeat. Endeavoring to recall some of these events, the 1959 ANCHOR presents

CO-ADVISORS

Miss Frances Raine
Mr. John A. Huller

It is with heartfelt gratitude that we wish to offer a small token of our appreciation for his never-ending labors to a teacher who has unselfishly given of his time in behalf of others. For thirty-six years he has ceaselessly served this community. His untiring efforts and sincere devotion to his work have won for him the respect and admiration of all those who know him. A man of deep humility, his first thought has always been of his students. Because of his understanding ways, he has been an inspiration to many. His kindness and his good works can not be measured. We are greatly indebted to him for all that he has done for the students and administration of this school and even the entire school system. Because we want him to know that we are thankful for having such a fine person among us, the Class of 1959 dedicates its yearbook to Mr. Miles L. Thompson.

Filled with excitement and busy days life at N.N.H.S. has held many happy and meaningful experiences. School assemblies, pep assemblies, school dances, S.C.A. projects, plays, and athletic contests have added much to our school life. As we look back through these pages we will remember how wonderful life has been at N.N.H.S.

SCHOOL LIFE

L. to R., Heather Alcorn, Kenny Olshansky

This is life at N.N.H.S.-----

The N. N. H. S. Dance Band is enthusiastically received as they make their debut at the "Queen of Hearts Ball."

"Two bits, four bits, six bits, a dollar. All for Newport stand up and holler!"

"A dash of pep, a sprinkle of steam, a dose of coaching, and a whole lot of team" are the recipe for winning the Turkey Day Classic, as prepared by the Varsity Cheerleaders in the Hampton Pep Assembly.

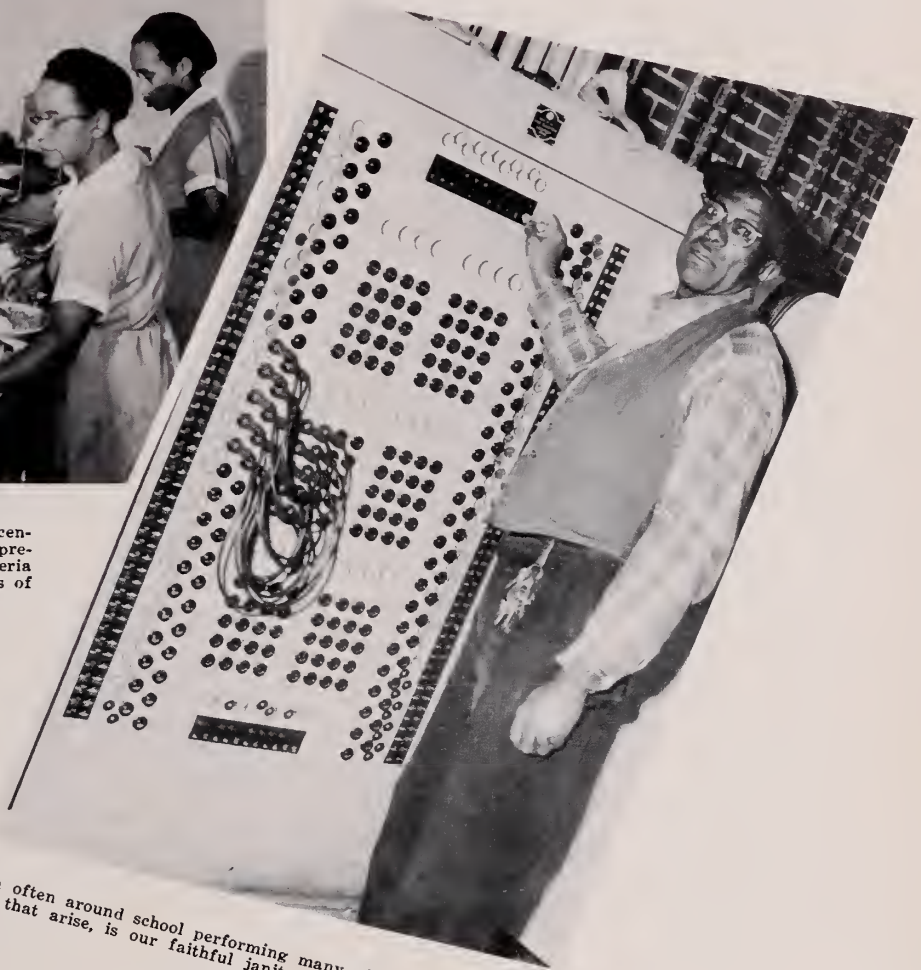

"There are so many good books here that I can't decide which one I want to read," Marshall Adams remarks to Susan Perkins.

Busy, but wonderful and momentous!

After a morning of deep concentration, the appetizing food prepared by our competent cafeteria staff brings a gleam to the eyes of hungry students.

Seen often around school performing many of the maintenance jobs that arise, is our faithful janitor, Roy.

Warm spring days find students coming outdoors during lunch period to enjoy the sunny weather. Seated in the gym, Dan Rouse lends Ginny Krabbe a helping hand with her history assignment.

We shared in the hard work

Planned by the Newcomers Committee of the Student Council, this bulletin board display introduced us to the new members of our student body.

What flavor today, Mrs. Bradford? Cherry, lemon, or apple? Whatever she's concocting, we know it will be good!

Members of our faculty relax during their free period over a cup of coffee and the latest news.

Discussing the geographical influences of Germany's history, Velma Petty and Betty Marshall prepare for class discussion.

Mrs. Williams, our school nurse, assists Dr. Goldsmith as he examines Ruby Phillips, a member of the hockey team.

And carefree moments of each day

Imagine the startled exclamations when the flashbulb popped! Caught unawares, our office staff didn't have a chance to greet the cameraman with their friendly smiles.

At the end of a busy day an armful of books can become a rather heavy load. These students must be wondering if their friends will ever come.

A special feature of the D. E. and D. O. Clubs Valentine Dance was the selection of a "Queen of Hearts." Each school organization was asked to send its loveliest member to compete for the title. The candidates, wearing evening gowns, are shown dancing with their escorts.

A familiar twosome around the halls of N. N. H. S. are Kathy Jones and Robert Bracey. No doubt they are making last minute plans for Saturday night.

Long hours were spent

"Hey girls, what's the latest news?" This is a typical "gab" session during the girls' gym classes.

Long after students have left for home in the afternoon, the maids are busy cleaning the classrooms, readying them again for the next day. These are two of the hard working people who do so much to keep our school neat in appearance.

From the looks of the empty plates on those two trays it seems two hungry students thoroughly enjoyed a good lunch.

Sandra Nesbitt introduces the hall of fame and officers during the annual Mouse Assembly.

In preparation for special events

As a traditional part of the observance of National Education week, the F.T.A. presents members of the faculty with bright red apples as a token of appreciation. Mrs. Baker receives her apple from Connie Zeno.

Football enthusiasts take a time-out for refreshment during the half time of the Newport News-Hampton game.

Late to class? All ten o'clock scholars must receive a late slip from Mr. Wheary before reporting to class. Peggy Allen hopes her tardiness will be excused.

There were numerous social activities

Under the direction of Mr. Wilson, the Dance Band rehearses several selections for a forthcoming engagement. This group's fine performances for pep assemblies and dances have been enjoyed by everyone.

Charter members of the Newport News Mouseketeer Club, Donald Schwartz, Billy Jenkins, Joe Frank, Jimmy Moody, and Gene Collins, lead the student body in welcoming the 8th graders into high school.

A circle of smiles from our Friendly Typhoons: Wayne Delozier, Jackie Belote, Judy Harrison, Gene Collins, Johnny Canepa, Brenda Veazey, Billy Bryant and Peggy Dail.

Showing their approval, the Typhoon Mouse Club gives a warm reception to the eighth graders of 1959 as they receive their membership cards.

To meet our individual interests

Coming to life, these perky wooden soldiers step smartly to the music of the "Parade of the Wooden Soldier."

At our traditional Christmas Assembly, this year planned by the Music Department, the student body joined the chorus and band in singing carols.

Just back from gym class, these young ladies gather around the book racks in the cafeteria to make good use of the few minutes remaining before the bell.

Evelyn Thomas, our popular Band Sweetheart, receives the traditional bouquet of roses from principal, Robert Maidment, during the half-time show of the Norview football game.

School life has been terrific!

Playing our victory song, "Newport's Gonna Shine", the band lends color and spirit to the excitement of the Newport News - Warwick football game.

It's difficult to put on a scarf with an armful of books. Always willing to help a friend, Elva Haley patiently holds Sudie Barfield's textbooks as they prepare to leave school for the day.

4:00 Shipyard rush? No, just a typical Typhoon change of classes.

Adding beauty and meaning to our Thanksgiving Assembly was the music presented by the Senior Chorus under the direction of Mrs. LaPides.

Students, Ed Harris, Dickie Appearson, Courtney Kerman and Joe Carney, proudly display their activity letters on Blue and Gold Letter Day.

During the fall Honor Assembly, Rev. W. P. Milne, pastor of Orcutt Avenue Baptist Church, spoke to the N.N.H.S. student body on "Honor Our Life."

In the classroom we received our formal instruction. Here we had the opportunity to pursue courses that would prepare us for future careers.

L. to R., Jackie Belote, Wayne Delozier

CLASSROOMS

Contributed Much To Our Progress

MR. ROBERT MAIDMENT

His interest in us and our activities along with the friendliness of his smile has gained Mr. Robert Maidment, our principal, the respect and admiration of the entire student body and faculty. His efficiency, able administration, and unassuming ways have served to inspire and guide us.

MR. THOMAS O. KEESEE

Our assistant principal, Mr. Thomas O. Keesee, has shown outstanding ability in his work. With his sparkling personality and untiring efforts, he has endeared himself to all those who know him. Serving as dean of boys, he has displayed a deep sense of understanding and is always ready to help others with their problems.

Capable And Dedicated Teachers

MISS ETHEL M. GILDERSLEEVE

With deep understanding and interest in her work, our dean of girls, Miss Ethel M. Gildersleeve, has become an inspiration to each student at Newport News High School. Guiding the student council in all of its projects and serving as sponsor of the Future Teachers of America Club are part of her busy activities.

MISS MARY MARGARET LANE

In her first year as guidance counselor, Miss Mary Margaret Lane has helped the students immensely in planning their high school curriculum. One of the most important parts of her job is supervising the giving of achievement and ability tests. Despite her heavy schedule, she always finds time to offer assistance and aid.

Working together in our many organizations, we learned the fundamentals of cooperation and teamwork. In the years to come these will enable us to take a more active roll in the life of our community.

ACTIVITIES

L. to R., Betty Overman, Wendell Williamson.

EXECUTIVE BOARD

L. to R., Row 1: E. Fowler, G. Tart, S. Nesbitt, M. Matthews, W. Hancock, B. Jenkins, Miss Gildersleeve, L. Powell. Row 2: A. Gallins, W. Williamson, M. Jeffers, B. Derr, R. Burroughs, S. Veazey, J. Moody, P. Dail, W. DeLozier. Row 3: D. Schwartz, G. Collins, N. Gordon, J. Frank, B. Veazey, H. Nachman, F. Hammond, K. Olshansky.

Composed of the Student Body officers, Student Council Committee chairmen, and an elected representative from each class, the Executive Board acts as a central planning body for the Student Council.

STUDENT BODY OFFICERS

L. to R.: W. Hancock, President, M. Matthews, Secretary, B. Jenkins, Vice President.

Ably equipped to guide and direct our Student Government are our Student Body Officers, who are elected each spring in a school-wide election. Months of planning and hard work go into the preparation for their campaigns, which are usually original and serve a double purpose: to help get the candidates elected and as a means for many other students to express themselves.

We Participated In Many Activities

STUDENT COUNCIL

L. to R., Row 1: M. Jeffers, R. Burroughs, K. Olshansky, F. Bowen, R. Carleton, L. Spigel, B. Fox, S. Nachman, S. Sparkman, J. Moody, B. Jenkins, W. Hancock, M. Barnes, W. DeLozier, D. Schwartz. Row 2: M. Matthews, G. Davenport, S. Nesbitt, G. Tart, R. Ruben, C. Anderson, G. Goolsby, S. Jeffers, F. Pearce, P. Roane, D. Williams, B. Veazey, A. Andrews, H. LaFlare, N. Horton, S. Morewitz. Row 3: N. Turlington, M. Cohen, H. Wilks, N. Powell, H. Nachman, F. Hammond, P. Sweeney, L. Powell, S. Harrison, C. Brown, J. Walker, I. James, E. Fowler, J. Hawley, P. Dail, E. Ellis. Row 4: Miss Gildersleeve, B. Derr, B. Gillette, P. Hoyle, C. Davis, F. Mays, S. Veazey, J. Gallins, P. Hester, B. Schmidt, W. Williamson, J. Frank, J. Shapiro, B. Smith, S. Coffey.

The Student Council, composed of members representing each homeroom, acts as the governing body of Newport News High School. Their primary purpose is to promote the general welfare of the school and to give the students training for citizenship and leadership. This group, under the wise and helpful guidance of Miss Ethel Gildersleeve, promotes many worthwhile activities around school.

L. to R., Row 1: M. Leake, J. Tesh, G. Tart, Mrs. Nettles, S. Morewitz. Row 2: G. Tesh, F. Ivey, H. Underwood, D. White.

Now in its twenty-seventh year, one of the most efficient phases of Newport News High School's student government has been its Honor Council. The council is composed of students nominated by the Executive Board and elected by their classes. Endeavoring to promote honesty in all aspects of school life is the main objective of the Honor Council. Our Honor Council is one of the finest in Virginia.

HOUSE AND GROUNDS COMMITTEE

L. to R., Row 1: C. McPherson, B. Jenkins, J. Unger, L. Spigel. Row 2: D. Schwartz, G. Tart, S. Conn, A. Carter, D. Patton, N. Saunders.

To encourage cleanliness around the school was the big job of the House and Grounds Committee, headed by Billy Jenkins. Contests to select the cleanest homerooms were held throughout the year, with plaques and certificates awarded to the winning rooms.

SPORTSMANSHIP COMMITTEE

L. to R., Row 1: B. Ruskey, G. Krabbe, R. Burroughs, D. Riley. Row 2: S. Corum, M. Matthews, J. Canepa, C. Davis.

Ronnie Burroughs and his Sportsmanship Committee have been busy this year planning new and different ways to encourage good sportsmanship at N. N. H. S. One of their projects was to have a coach speak to the student body in every pep assembly on good sportsmanship. The group also sponsored a Good Sportsmanship week.

BEHAVIOR CODE COMMITTEE

Planning the two Honor Weeks this year with the aid of the Honor Council was just one of the many projects of the Behavior Code Committee. This group, under the direction of Gloria Tart, also joined the Publicity Committee in planning the Thanksgiving Assembly.

NEWCOMERS COMMITTEE

Headed by Peggy Dail, the Newcomers Committee has helped new students become acquainted with Newport News High School. Mouse Assembly and Friendly Typhoon Week were the important undertakings of the group this year.

CAFETERIA COMMITTEE

L. to R., Row 1: L. Edwards, A. Gallins, R. Gallins, C. Wagner. Row 2: D. Schwartz, F. Benson, C. Smith, M. Smith.

Under the direction of Aretie Gallins, these Cafeteria Committee members have endeavor-

REMEMBRANCE COMMITTEE

L. to R., Row 1: M. Simpson, A. Andrews, L. Powell, R. Goldberg, J. Bright. Row 2: J. Williams, B. Dabbs, E. Cohen, C. Wagner.

It is the job of the Remembrance Committee, headed by Louise Powell, to remember and send cards to those students and teachers who are ill or bereaved. Working with the Sportsmanship Committee, the group also helped sponsor the United Fund Drive in our school.

SAFETY COMMITTEE

L. to R., Row 1: P. Kahn, C. Nachman, J. Frank, L. Nelson, B. Block. Row 2: D. Garrick, P. Hoyle, J. Murden, S. Spritzer, H. Smith.

Joe Frank and his Safety Committee have endeavored this year to encourage safety and caution around Newport News High School. Their main improvement was on the fire drills, which included making diagrams marking the routes of each room for use during fire drills.

BULLETIN BOARD, POUND, BELL, & SCRAPBOOK COMMITTEES

L. to R., Row 1: F. Hammond, G. Collins, S. Nesbitt. Row 2: D. Schwartz, S. Veazey, J. Moody.

Though they may be small, these four committees contribute much of their time and effort in keeping the main bulletin board and scrap book up-to-date, taking care of lost and found articles, and holding the bell for Council meetings and assemblies.

ed to encourage good table manners in students at N. N. H. S. by exhibits, contests, and a Cafeteria Week. Their big problem this year was an attempt to prevent breaking in the lunch lines.

SCHOOL SPIRIT COMMITTEE

L. to R., Row 1: C. Whitehurst, H. Nachman, N. Gordon, J. Lamb, H. Smith. Row 2: P. Hoyle, C. Nachman, R. Mitchell, A. Wise, J. Harris.

Co-Chairmen Nancy Gordon and Harriet Nachman work long hours with the School Spirit Committee before and after school to help boost school spirit. Members of the committee were responsible for the gaily decorated goal posts for all home football games and for the tags worn by the students before important games.

PUBLICITY COMMITTEE

L. to R., Row 1: C. McPherson, R. Sweeney, B. Derr, J. Johnson, A. Sears. Row 2: I. James, P. Lamar, A. Carter, D. Patten, R. Mitchell, S. Harrison.

All publicity of school activities this year was handled by the Publicity committee. The clever background for the Mouse Assembly was just one of the results of this hard-working committee headed by Bobby Derr.

DANCE COMMITTEE

L. to R., Row 1: K. Wade, W. Williamson, E. Fowler, B. Dixon. Row 2: S. Jeffers, J. Williams, M. Leake, V. Johns, D. Riley.

Headed by Wendell Williamson and Eleanor Fowler, the Dance Committee planned all dances sponsored by the Student Council. The school's first dance of the year, "Fall Fantasy," was planned by this group. They also held dancing lessons every other Wednesday morning in the girls' gym.

These Provided Opportunities

THESPIANS

L. to R., Row 1: B. Anker, J. Bright, F. Gillespie, C. Smith, E. Cohen, P. Morris, B. David. Row 2: J. Wolfe, V. Martin, B. Crickenberger, B. Spencer, K. Jones, B. Ellis, W. Spitzer, M. Pettit, M. Walker. Row 3: G. Moore, H. Fisher, T. Musika, N. Midkiff, B. Carroll, C. Tolbert, F. Mageras.

Thespians is a national society open to outstanding students in drama. Pupils who have done exceptional work in plays, on the staffs, and in other phases of dramatics are eligible for membership in the Newport News High School chapter, which was the first to be established in Virginia.

QUILL AND SCROLL

Quill and Scroll is a national honorary society for outstanding students in the field of journalism. Only those who have excelled in their work either on the BEACON or the ANCHOR staffs are chosen for this group. Each spring new members, chosen by the publications' sponsors, are honored at a banquet.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

L. to R., Row 1: M. Walker, A. Gallins, Mrs. Bauserman, P. Dail, G. Tart. Row 2: W. Hancock, H. Conn, J. Carney, B. Jenkins.

Chosen by faculty vote, members of the National Honor Society must excel in scholarship, leadership, character, and service to the school. To gain membership in this honorary society is one of the most outstanding achievements one can obtain in high school. Members are selected each spring on a percentage basis; five percent from the junior class and ten percent from the senior class.

For Us To Broaden Our Interests

DRAMA STAFF HEADS

L. to R., Row 1: G. Moore, E. Self, B. Malpass, W. Williamson, R. Barnes, J. Phelps, B. David. Row 2: K. Hartsell, B. Dudash, J. Harris, E. Meck, R. Ezzell, B. Ellis, P. Scull, L. Blechman. Row 3: J. Sawyer, J. Jaffee, A. Wise, N. Powell, J. Karycinski, M. Pettit.

Shown here are the heads of the various drama staffs who work together in the production and presentation of our fall and spring plays. These students contribute much to the success of the drama department.

STAGE CREW

L. to R., Row 1: R. Slusser, E. Simmons, J. Thweatt, B. Carroll. Row 2: N. Midkiff, W. Goff, F. Mageras, G. Moore.

Under the capable direction of Gerald Moore, these eight boys played a leading role in behind-the-scenes productions of all school plays, concerts, and assemblies. They also handled the back stage tasks for many community affairs.

GIRLS' USHER HEADS

L. to R., Row 1: P. Moore, C. Thomas, J. Welstead. Row 2: A. Lively, C. Lively, L. Phillips.

Pictured here are the heads of the Girls' Usher Staff. Efficient and capable in their capacity, they have ushered for both school and community affairs. The girls are chosen by Miss Dorothy Crane, sponsor, on recommendations of teachers.

Our Talents Were Expressed

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

L. to R.: E. Fowler, M. Matthews, S. Walker, G. Tart, S. Taylor, K. Knight, M. Walker, F. Hammond, C. Anas.

Contributing much to the success of our athletic activities are our Varsity pepsters. Equipped with originality and enthusiasm, these lively girls planned pep assemblies, led the Student Body in cheering at football and basketball games, and planned new and different ways to encourage better school spirit at Newport News High School.

Our pint-sized bundles of pep, the Junior Varsity Cheerleaders, also do a lot in encouraging school spirit, not only at Junior Varsity games, but also in presenting unusual songs and skits in pep assemblies. These girls, as well as the Varsity Cheerleaders, are elected by the Student Body in the spring.

In A Varied Program

VARSITY FLAGTWIRLERS

L. to R.: E. Thomas, J. Whitaker, C. Smith, M. C. Todd, J. Sammons.

Performing with ease and grace, our Varsity Flagtwirlers are a welcome sight to any fan at halftime programs during football season. Being a flagtwirler involves many hours of hard work and practice. Aside from football games and pep assemblies, flagtwirlers march in parades with the band and appear in band concerts.

Another colorful, but smaller feature is the Junior Varsity Flagtwirlers who add interest and entertainment to some J. V. Football games and pep assemblies with their snappy routines and skits. Like the Varsity Flagtwirlers, these girls are chosen on the basis of their skill and grace by Mr. Wilson, a small group of faculty members, and the graduating flagtwirlers.

We Prepared For The Future

KEY CLUB

L. to R., Row 1: F. Ivey, F. Benson, H. Fisher, Mr. Range, Miss Shelton, R. Carleton, J. Carney, B. Jenkins, J. Gorrell. Row 2: S. Conn, K. Olshansky, J. Murden, R. Callis, C. Hiemenz, W. Williamson, F. Bowen, S. Lipes, M. Jeffers, J. Frank. Row 3: C. Strader, H. Conn, B. Mears, G. Helliesen, P. Burton, D. Apperson, R. Burroughs, H. Wilks, H. Underwood, D. Rouse.

Membership in the Key Club is open to Sophomore, Junior, and Senior boys. This organization, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, tries to create a better understanding between the school and the community. During the year the members helped the Kiwanis Club in sponsoring their annual Kid's Day. They also held a Leaders Banquet for school leaders.

L. to R., Seated: R. Sternfield, S. Groshong. Row 1: R. Ruben, N. Stoller, R. Sayetta, M. Smith. Row 2: P. Hoyle, J. Kotanchik, J. Carney, Mrs. Huffman.

Stimulating and encouraging better creative writing, by publishing the best short stories, poems, and essays produced by pupils of the English Department, is the aim of LAUNCHINGS, the Newport News High School literary magazine. LAUNCHINGS is published annually and distributed to students and faculty in the spring.

LIBRARY ASSISTANTS CLUB

L. to R., Row 1: V. Herring, J. Barrow, J. Williams, G. DeMoss, L. Powell, B. Derr, Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. Weinstein. Row 2: L. Hartzler, V. Tosh, S. Vanderslice, U. Richardson.

This club is made up of pupils serving as assistants in the library. These students aid in the routine operations of the library, such as checking books in and out, assisting with reference typing, preparing catalogue cards for new books, and shelving returned books. The club itself is primarily a social organization, having many parties and picnics.

By Learning To Work Together

ANCHOR

The ANCHOR is Newport News High School's annual publication which presents a clear and interesting picture of the past year's activities and events to the high school students. Members of the staff, who are chosen during the latter part of their junior year to work on the yearbook in their senior year, contribute much time and effort in preparing a successful annual which will bring back many pleasant memories in the years to come.

L. to R., Row 1: R. Manning, J. Sammons, C. Smith, N. Collins, L. McKinsey, E. Loren, N. Gordon, H. Nachman, S. Nesbitt, S. Barefield. Row 2: S. Gordon, H. Mageras, P. Johnson, B. Dameron, C. Davis, M. Kahn, J. Block, Mr. Pillow. Row 3: T. Sandler, B. Moell, M. Matthews, J. Anker, C. Nachman, F. Bowen, R. Burroughs.

Presenting up-to-date school news in the form of the BEACON, Newport News High School's student newspaper, is the job of these hard-working staffers. Its members take interviews and report on all important school events. It is the job of the BEACON staff to write, edit, and print the school newspaper every two weeks.

The Experiences We Gained

L. to R., Row 1: B. Bryant, L. Ramsey, K. Gayle, C. Barter, E. Loren, E. Wilkinson, A. Livesay, C. Crenshaw, P. Andrews, S. McMahon, P. Moore, J. Houston, Mrs. LaPides, J. Jaffee. Row 2: C. Merriman, E. Meek, K. Powell, J. Barbour, S. Lankford, B. Marshall, M. Smith, M. Van Noy, R. Callis, L. Crum, D. Apperson, V. Martin, V. Petty, M. Quisenberry, M. Harcum. Row 3: B. Woods, J. Tesh, M. Powell, C. Thomas, N. Olafeld, S. Duell, J. Mosier, G. Poteat, L. Matthews, J. Lovedahl, J. Monfalcone, N. Madagan, P. Davis, C. Zeno, J. Williams. Row 4: S. Hawkins, B. Barkley, B. Smith, C. Ingram, G. Spivak, J. White, M. Smith, J. Vines, S. Gillis, B. Gatling, R. Fowler, G. Whitmore, C. Watson, C. Brewer, K. Pearce, N. Kulm, N. Major, C. Hehl, D. Keithley.

Led by Mrs. LaPides, these Senior Chorus members display their musical talent. From this large group, smaller groups, such as the Boy's Ensemble and the Girl's Glee Club, are chosen to perform at various school and community functions. The chorus has strived to reach the goal set by the department for this year, which was to take a more active part in all school affairs, such as concerts, assemblies, and holiday programs.

L. to R., Row 1: J. Barnes, C. Jones, S. White, J. Baker, P. McCormick, W. Howell, B. Snead, R. Forbes, V. Butcher, H. Mulder, Mr. Beachum. Row 2: B. Carroll, J. Dixon, K. Houck, O. Chapman, R. Wade, R. Beasley, T. Musika, R. Lewis, R. Oliver. Row 3: R. Walker, K. Carter, P. Hester, R. Robinson, B. Nuckols, D. Desler, R. McDorman, H. Strickland.

Believing that training is essential to professional growth, the Distributive Education Club is eager to gain economic understanding of current problems and practices in the field of distribution. The club tries to help students gain an understanding of their employers, and it provides for helpful participation in civic enterprises. One of the activities of the club this year was a hayride in November.

Will Be Invaluable In Later Years

ART CLUB

Not only does the Art Club have programs of interest concerning art, but it also tries to show to others outside the group the interest and beauty of art by preparing original exhibits for school display. Among the many activities of the club this year was the "Harvest Hop", held in November for members of the student body.

D. O. CLUB

L. to R., Row 1: L. Philbeck, P. Thompson, P. Coalter, G. Smith, R. McKee. Row 2: W. Lotts, G. Paschall, J. Spencer, S. Johnson, C. Nickey, L. Rucker. Row 3: Mr. Bennett, F. Anderson, B. Smith, A. Davis, R. Johnson, S. Russell, D. Hubbard.

The Diversified Occupations Club has a fivefold purpose: to provide its members with a means to show its appreciation for the opportunities of the Diversified Occupations students throughout the state; to provide leadership training opportunities; to provide a means to help develop better community-school relationships; to encourage students to respect workmanship and scholarship; and to provide a means of informing the public of its contributions. The club has sponsored an employer-employee banquet and was host for the District I clubs of Virginia.

We Worked Hard To Make

SCIENCE CLUB

L. to R., Row 1: L. Matthews, P. Lieberman, P. Hoyle, C. Hacker, B. Stoller, J. Kotanchik, P. Stoller, R. Parrish. Row 2: Mrs. Conn, S. Manning, E. Kuhn, N. Stoller, P. Dail, F. Mageras, M. White, A. Dorn, Miss Floyd.

Membership in the Science Club is open to any student who has a desire to increase his knowledge of science in everyday life. The club members, under the co-sponsorship of Mrs. Conn and Miss Floyd, planned individual projects during the year which they entered in state and local competition. Programs of interest included field trips and lectures.

Encouraging young people to cultivate in themselves the qualities of personality and character, which are the foundations of successful teaching, and to keep informed about opportunities in the fields of education are two of the objectives of the Future Teachers of America. American Education Week was observed in November by presenting each teacher with an apple and a report card. Members also did practice teaching in various elementary schools in the city.

B. Dunkley, B. Carnes, E. Schlosser, H. Carney, S. Pullen, P. Russell, J. Riley, P. Sweeney, C. Levin, B. Babcock.

These eighth and ninth grade students use the Junior Chorus as a means of musical expression and a preparation period for the Senior Chorus. Under the direction of Miss Eleanor Sherman, the Chorus participated in the Community Music Festival and a joint concert with the Junior Band.

Honors For Their Efforts

Under the direction of Mr. James P. Wilson's magic baton, these Senior Band members have ably represented Newport News High School at many public functions during the past year. Few people realize the hard work and long hours of practice the band members put into each day, but which is clearly evident in their polished performances at pep assemblies, football games, parades, and concerts. One of the important activities of the band this year was its participation in the third annual Band Day in Charlottesville, Virginia.

JUNIOR BAND

Consisting of a group of younger high school students, the Junior Band's main purpose is to further the training of its members toward the Senior Band. This year, under the direction of Miss Janice Shockley, the band has participated in the All-City Music Festival and a joint concert with the Junior Chorus, as well as lending gaiety and color to J. V. Football games.

Under the able sponsorship of Miss Free, the S.P.Q.R. Latin Club highlighted the year with an Open House, where they displayed projects connected with Roman life and culture. A Roman Banquet, for the purpose of initiating new members, was held in March. Some of the members have formed a chapter of the Junior Classical League, which is a national organization to encourage interest in Roman culture.

For those whose talents lie in fields other than our clubs, opportunities for expression were provided in a well rounded sports program. Athletic contests added color and excitement to our school life.

PIGSKIN PARADE

Although the 1958 football season was not a success in terms of games won and lost, it has served its purpose well. Coach J. C. Range has taken a young and inexperienced squad and has molded them into a football team that will prove itself during the 1959 season.

This has been a year of rebuilding which all teams must face at some time or another. Most of this team will be back next year, and big things will be expected from them.

Quarterback Dan Rouse made the Peninsula Sports Club All-Peninsula Team.

Lanky Frank Ivey stretches for a pass from quarterback Dan Rouse.

Displayed Much Spirit.

Edward Travis, Chick Damron, and Julian Rice, members of our press corps, seem to be impressed by the action down on the field.

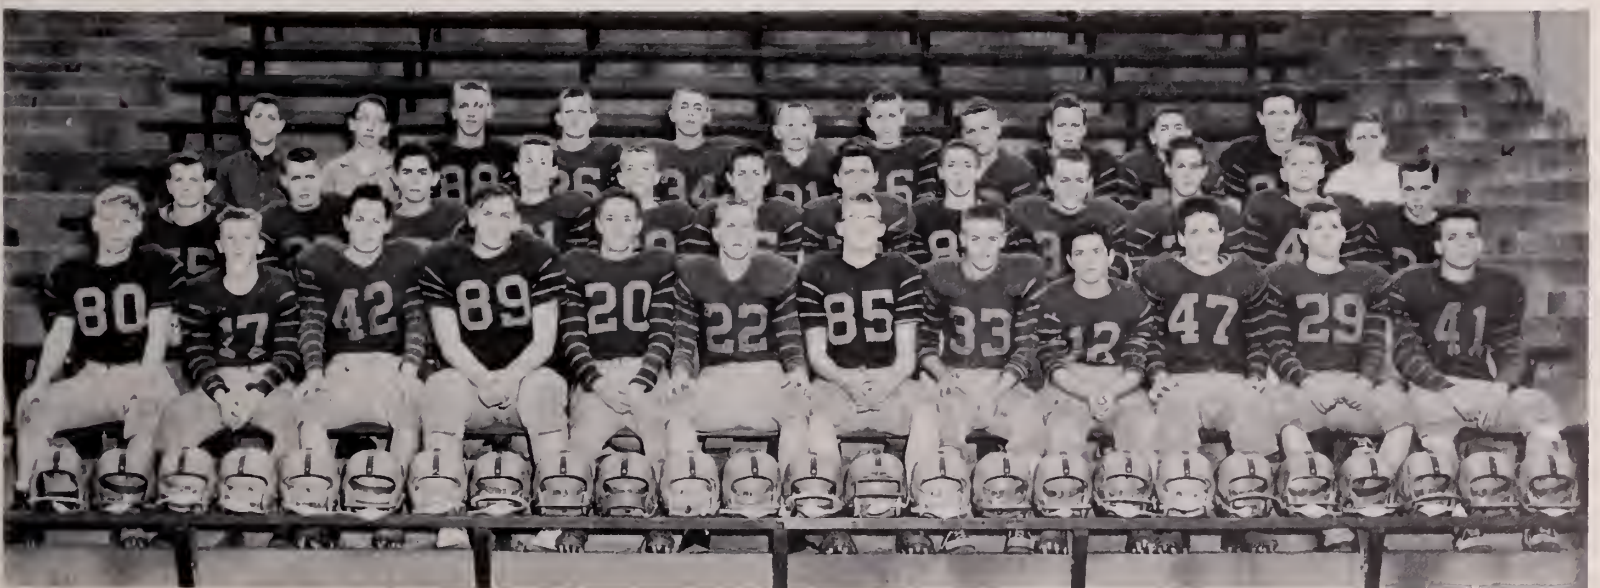

Horace Underwood gets a healthy pat on the back from Gerald Schweida, George Balanis, Billy Gatling, and Billy Roady for his gain.

J. V. PIGSKIN PARADE

Our J. V. team, not known to all students, is the training camp for future varsity players. Being on the J. V. squad gives these boys game experience and a knowledge of football fundamentals. The team had a good first half season, but injuries in the Maury game weakened the team for the remainder of the season.

HARDWOOD LEDGER

With only one regular returning this year, our hopes for the fourth consecutive state championship looked rather dim. In the first game against Maury the Typhoons pulled through with a 36-25 score, but were not at all impressive in their ball handling and shooting. Under the capable guidance of Coach Charles Driesell, our starting five, Harry Conn, Frank Ivey, Ned Midkiff, Gene Gill, and Horace Underwood improved their basketball fundamentals and this, combined with great desire and fine teamwork made the Typhoons a basketball power. A strong bench was also an important factor in their success. Stressing a defense which gave up an average of only 34 points per game, the team extended their three season winning streak to fifty-seven (an unprecedented Group I record). In a tight overtime effort, Wilson halted our tremendous surge with a 34-32 setback.

We finished the regular season with a 19-1 record and entered the Eastern District Tournament. Winning handily from Cradock and Granby, we were defeated in the final round by Wilson 45-40.

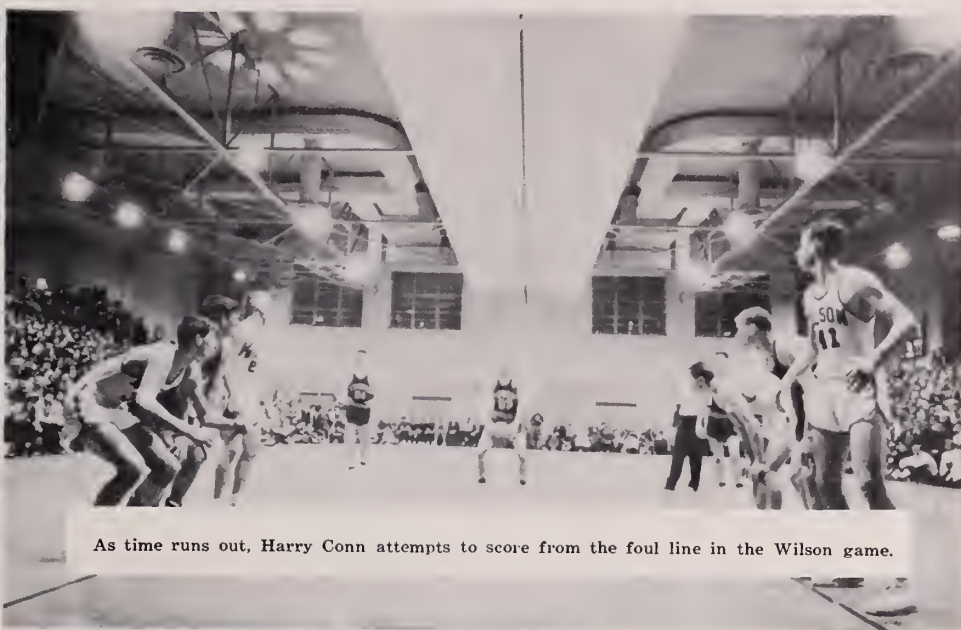

As the most sportsman-like team in the Eastern District Tournament, the Typhoons were presented the Johnny Thomas Memorial Trophy. Individual tournament honors were also won by Harry Conn and Ned Midkiff. Conn, captain and floor leader of the starting five, was unanimously given a first berth while Midkiff was placed on the second team. In district honors, Frank Ivey, the team's leading scorer was placed on the second team. The mythical All-Peninsula Team was dominated by the Typhoons with Conn, Ivey, and Midkiff securing first berths.

Although we did not succeed in our bid for the fourth consecutive state championship, our 21-2 record is a tribute to a good coach and a good team and the fighting spirit of N.N.H.S.

To overcome their inexperience

Horace Underwood drives in for lay-up in the crucial game against Wilson.

As time runs out, Harry Conn attempts to score from the foul line in the Wilson game.

Looking forward to an impressive season are the team's leaders: captain Harry Conn and coach Charles Driesell.

DIAMOND PREVIEW

As the Anchor went to press, the 1959 Typhoon baseball season was just getting underway. With only three regulars returning, the team's prospects appear uncertain, but as the boys gain in experience and polish, they should prove themselves strong opponents. Returning lettermen Donnie White, Dan Rouse and Horace Underwood will play key roles in this season's play. Coaches Jack Powers and his assistant Bill Helms will also count heavily on the services of captain, Bobby Mears. Rouse and White are expected to turn in good performances as hitters while the pitching chore will likely see Mears and Rouse on the mound. Since the majority of the boys will be back next year the coaches feel they can look forward to a successful season next year.

CINDER OUTLOOK

The gold and blue cinder squad was preparing for the outdoor track season as the Anchor was going to press. The track team in its only meet up to this point thrashed Maury 107 to 6. Despite the loss of two of the best distance runners in the South last season, the gold and blue expects to accomplish great things this spring. Some of the outstanding individuals this spring will be Don Carroll in the weights, Jimmy Vines in the broad jump and the sprints, Ronald Levy and Billy Gatling in the hurdle events and Davis Martin in the pole vault. Gene Duncan was the state champion in the 440 during the indoor track season. Co-coaches Julius Conn and Charles Nuttycombe express the opinion that they will have a good team this season and with only four seniors on this year's squad both coaches said that they expect to do better next season.

A common sight around Newport News High School is a boy (like Mike Jeffers) holding books for his girl (perhaps Tina Burroughs) while she gets the latest gossip from her best friend (who might be Stephanie Spradlin).

"Well, shorty, you have a lot of growing to do, but maybe in a year or so you'll catch up," tenth grader Robert Coffey tells freshman John Taylor.

Almost every morning rain or shine, spring or fall, you can find Betty Overman and Paulette Odom chattering gaily about boys, homework, or that special secret as they meet on the steps by room 301.

Sitting on the stairway with "that" look in their eyes are Steve Seltzer and Tommy Cowdrey. It seems as if they're watching girls again.

While Steve Hochman and Gene Collins chat idly before the Senior Bulletin Board, Senior Eleanor Fowler explains to Ann Grogan and Sudie Barefield how Seniors order calling cards.

JUNIOR COMMITTEE HEADS

Dance—Rose Manning, Ring—Helen Estes, Decoration—Jean Thomas.

"What do you think this is—a social hour?"irate Johnny Canepa and Steve Conn seem to growl at Joan Sammons and Jackie Belote while the two girls talk over the latest news.

This is the big event in every students' life—that of finally being a senior. Here we had a chance to participate in not only the everyday activities of school, but we will recall with fondest memories our many parties, senior assembly, senior prom, and most important of all, graduation.

SENIORS

Sandra Nesbitt, chairman of the Senior Flower Committee, consults Louise Powell, head of the Color Committee, about the flowers that will harmonize best with the class colors.

Leaders of the Class of 1959 are; L. to R., Row 1: Sandra Taylor, Secretary; Gloria Tart, Honor Council Chairman; Eleanor Fowler, Class Giftorian; and Peggy Dail, Executive Board Representative.

L. to R., Row 2: Frank Ivey, President and Honor Council Representative; Jean Tesh, Honor Council Representative; Nancy Stoller, Treasurer; and Dan Rouse, Vice-President.

"Could you display the Senior Class motto right here?" Mary Beth Olson, chairman of the Motto Committee, asks Eleanor Fowler, who heads the Senior Bulletin Board Committee.

After many years of waiting, the big moment arrives when Bill Bradley pins a 1959 pennant on his steady, Caroline Phillips, head of the Pennant Committee.

Gloria Tart and Henry Horton, co-heads of the Senior Dance Committee, enjoy the musical talents of the chairman of the Music Committee, Dan Rouse.

Carolyn Lively places her order for announcements with Nancy Oldfield, Chairman of the Invitation Committee, while Jean Tesh, head of the Ring Committee, takes Nancy Stoller's order for her class ring.

"Lights, action, curtain!" Aretie Gallins and Bobby Derr, co-chairman of the Senior Assembly Committee, are ready to present the show to their waiting audience.

Every organization has certain key personnel to insure its successful and efficient operation. These senior leaders and committee heads are the people who have insured the success of their final year. They have handled the selection of motto, flowers, colors, rings, pennants and the many other details which have to be carried out by the Senior Class.

These leaders deserve much credit for the endless hours of work and thought given to the discharging of their many and varied duties.

ANCHOR STAFF MAKES ANNUAL TRIP TO NEW YORK

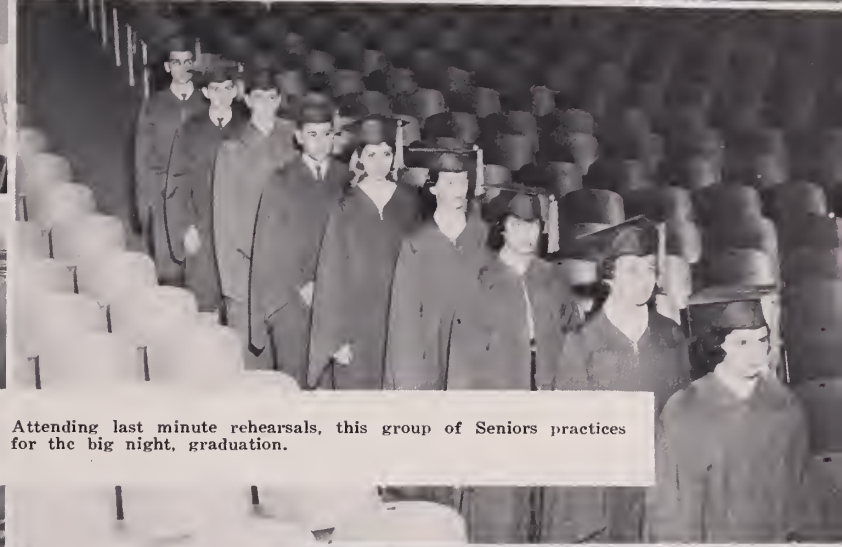

"Ah, lunch," says Joe Carney. What more need be said?

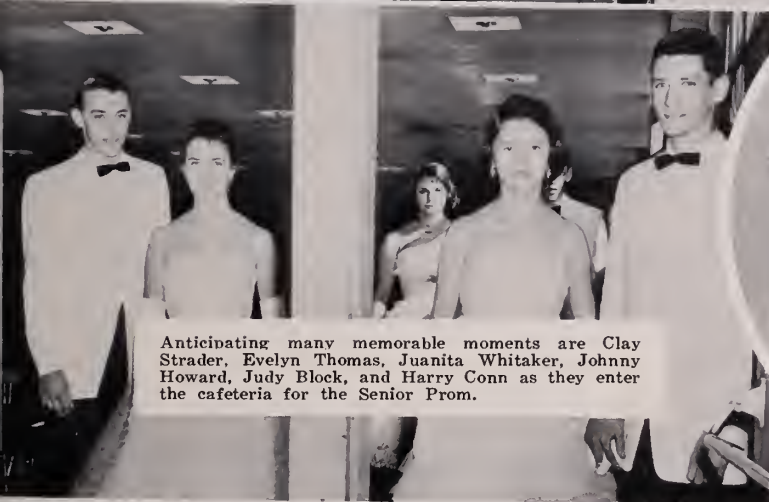

Adjusting his binoculars, Johnny Nickey turns into view Kay Knight and Glenda Howard on their way in from gym.

Enjoying their favorite pastime, these Seniors carry on the latest bull-session at the Y after school. Ten to one they're talking about graduation.

Attending last minute rehearsals, this group of Seniors practices for the big night, graduation.

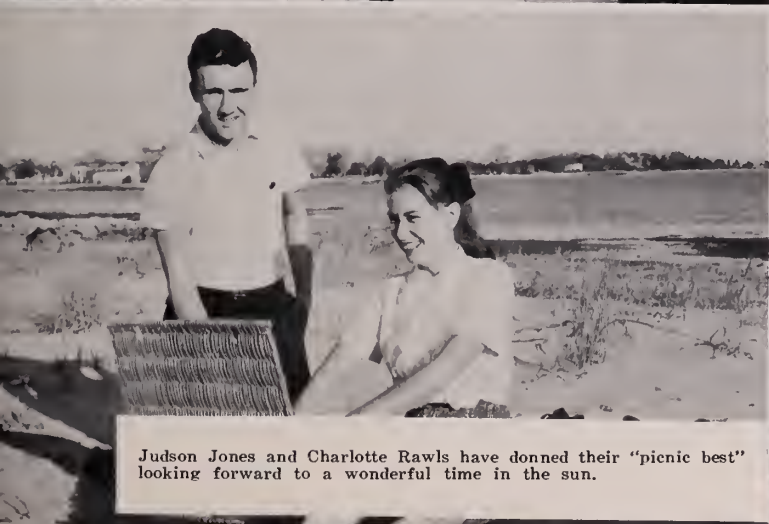

Anticipating many memorable moments are Clay Strader, Evelyn Thomas, Juanita Whitaker, Johnny Howard, Judy Block, and Harry Conn as they enter the cafeteria for the Senior Prom.

This is it.

"Be sure that you get it back on time," says Louise Powell as she checks out books in the library.

Judson Jones and Charlotte Rawls have donned their "picnic best" looking forward to a wonderful time in the sun.

The party's all over, and there's work to be done; but with these Seniors all pitching in to help, the kitchen will be clean in no time at all.

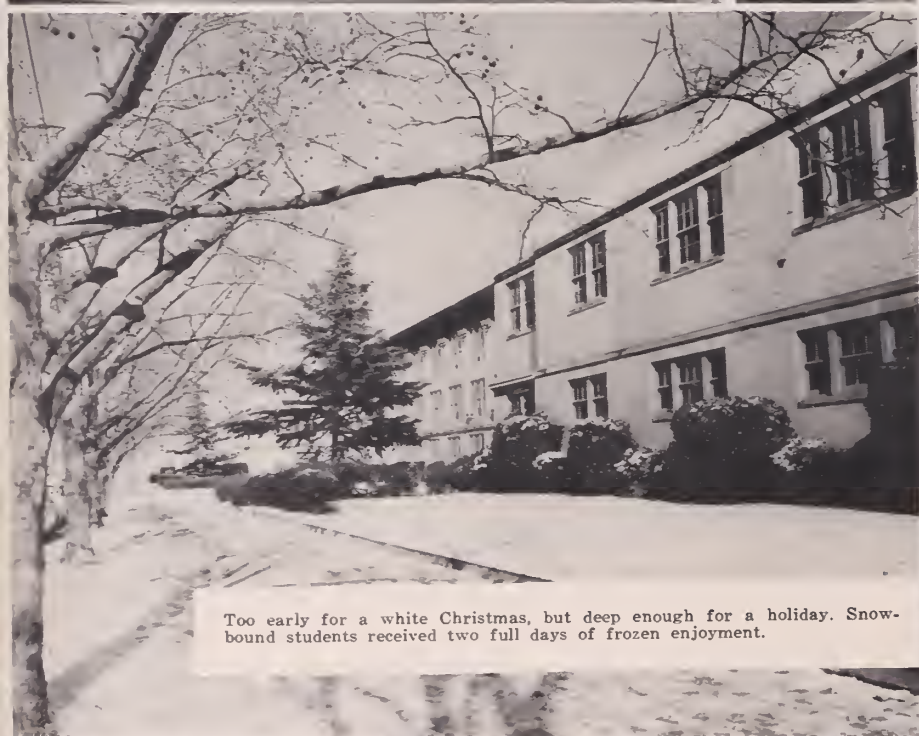

"Hey, wait a minute. I'm the one who's supposed to be taking pictures around here," says Gene Edmonds, our Anchor photographer.

"Hello, Jo Ann?"

Taking advantage of the beautiful sailing weather, Carol Taffer and Billy Jenkins cast off into the bay from Merrimac Shores.

Too early for a white Christmas, but deep enough for a holiday. Snow-bound students received two full days of frozen enjoyment.

With so many things to be done, everyone had a part to play in the Senior Assembly. This group of Seniors enthusiastically hunts for costumes and scenery in preparation for the big production.

"I was waltzing with my darling," runs through Sandra Taylor's mind as she smiles at Pat Hester, her handsome escort to the Senior Prom.

Busily at work, Miss Raine and Mr. Huller make future Anchor plans.

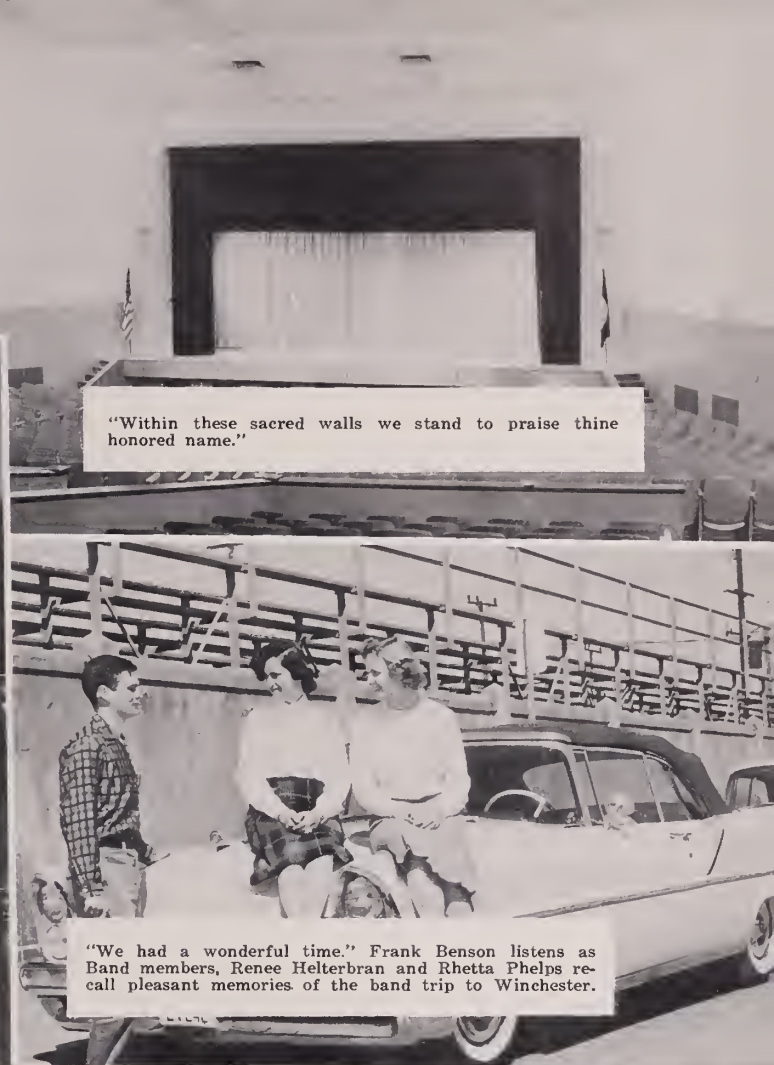

"Melinda, what did Miss Suttle assign for homework tonight?" inquires Dan Rouse.

"Are you sure it's time," exclaims Mr. Nuttycomb in amazement as he tries to eat his lunch and listen at the same time.

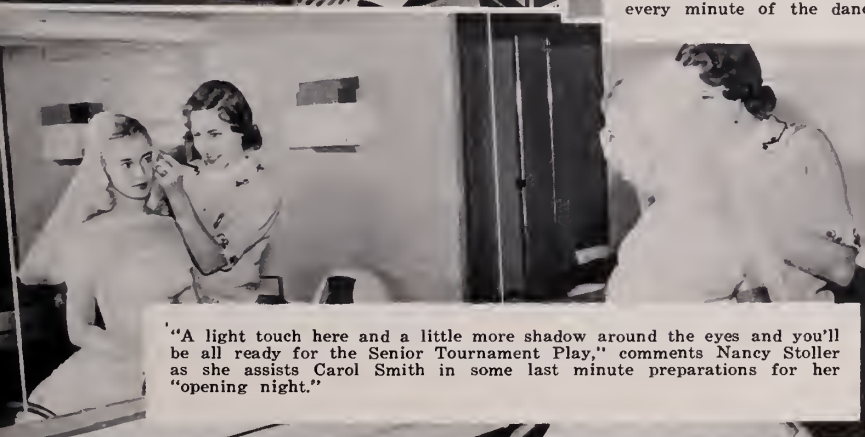

Captured in action while performing some of the latest dance steps, Gloria Tart and Whit Hancock show by their smiles that they are enjoying every minute of the dance.

"Within these sacred walls we stand to praise thine honored name."

"We had a wonderful time," Frank Benson listens as Band members, Renee Helterbran and Rhetta Phelps recall pleasant memories of the band trip to Winchester.

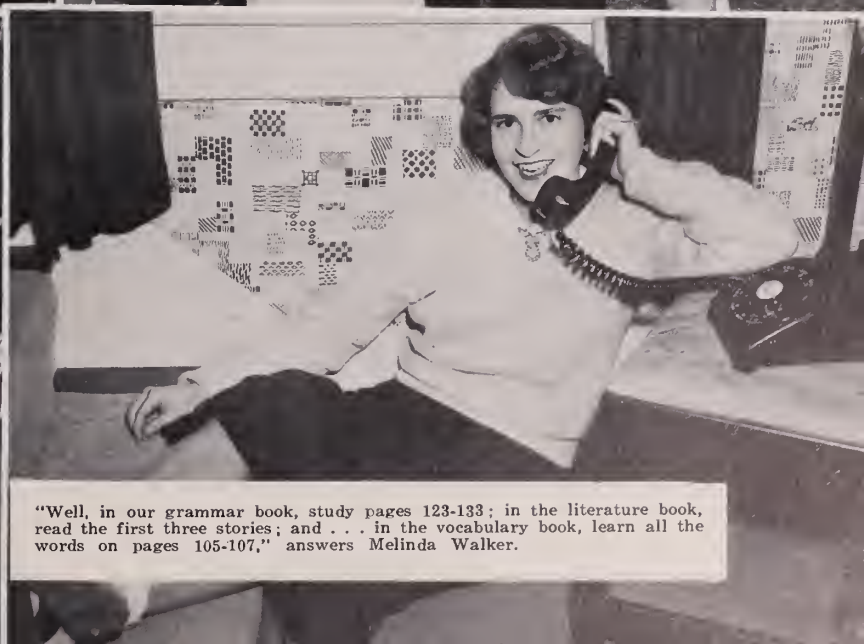

"A light touch here and a little more shadow around the eyes and you'll be all ready for the Senior Tournament Play," comments Nancy Stoller as she assists Carol Smith in some last minute preparations for her "opening night."

My, my, what have we here? These Seniors at a week-end party forgot their trouble of the past school week.

These Seniors and Juniors take time out from their strenuous hard morning's work to eat a hasty lunch before returning to their afternoon classes.

"Well, in our grammar book, study pages 123-133; in the literature book, read the first three stories; and . . . in the vocabulary book, learn all the words on pages 105-107," answers Melinda Walker.

Competent officers were elected

My sincere congratulations to you, graduates of the class of 1959!

Although I have been at Newport News High School only a short time, I wish to express my deep appreciation to each of you for bestowing upon me the honor of serving as a sponsor of your senior class. Working with you as an advisor and sharing in your activities have afforded me distinct pleasure this year.

The class of 1959 has been outstanding for its academic accomplishments, excellence of leadership, and loyalty of spirit. The qualities which have contributed greatly to your splendid high school performance will be invaluable in the life you now enter.

The world of today is a profoundly challenging one. In no other era of all mankind have so many world-shaking discoveries and accomplishments occurred. These phenomena are already revolutionizing man's concepts of science, international law, and philosophy. What horizons lie before you! As Christopher Fry in his play, A Sleep of Prisoners, says, "Thank God the time is now!"

May your life be happy and worthwhile. There is no proven formula for the best life, but such character traits as perseverance, integrity, courage, humility and faith will stand you in good stead. As you leave your Alma Mater and begin a new phase of your life, my best wishes go with you.

Margaret Farrar Baab

It is with great pleasure and deep humility that I have been able to share with you so closely this your senior year at Newport News High School. I want to thank each of you for the honor you bestowed upon me by electing me your sponsor. You feel important now that you are high school graduates. This is how you should feel since you have successfully completed another giant step along the trail of life. Another step is immediately ahead, however, and you must be careful how you take it for there are many pitfalls. Your high school education is a preparation for this step, but it is not a guarantee that it will be a success. This is your responsibility!

This venture is entirely new to all and for many there is indecision in making it. Some of you plan to further your education and have more complex maps by which to travel. For others, your high school work is the culmination of your formal education, and you must go forward now to seek the bread of life which before had been provided for you. Regardless of which of these two steps you take, have a goal before you and continually strive toward it.

Go forward through life, step by step, being careful not to tread upon anyone nor straying too far from the trail. Keep your eyes open, your chin up, and let God always be by your side. You will find that this path will lead you to success and happiness.

Sincerely,
Charles W. Nuttycombe

"I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America."

Did you ever feed your face T-bone steak five days a week?

Mr. Maidment ponders over a problem.

Louise Powell and Sammy Spencer compare their Senior rings.

Is Russell Parrish pointing out a UFO to Julia Williams and Nancy Oldfield?

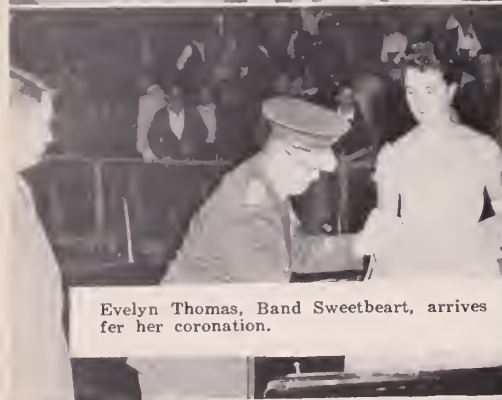

Don Bradley, Sandra Nesbitt, and Mary Catherine Todd assisted by Mrs. Baab decorate the cafeteria for a Senior dance.

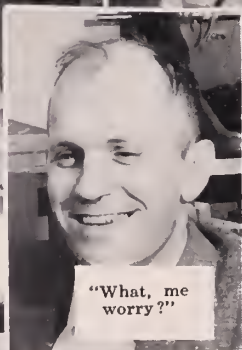

Senior president, Frank Ivey, transfers the traditional cap and gown to Ed Harris, Junior class president.

Can spring be very far away?

Evelyn Thomas, Band Sweetheart, arrives for her coronation.

"What, me worry?"

Busy beavers at work!

Mrs. Baab, our Senior sponsor, plans for future senior events.

Gloria Tart applies make up after lunch.

Miss Lane, our guidance director, helps Nancy Major plan her future.

These are our backers. Without their financial assistance and friendly cooperation this book, recalling our life in the past year, could not have been possible. To each and every one of our supporters we express our thanks.

Where Do You Go From Here... And How Do You Get There?

Graduation is a time for looking ahead . . . charting your future step by step . . . deciding where you want to go in life . . . planning purposefully HOW to get there. Whether at college or at work, you will find that success doesn't "just happen." It must be PLANNED . . . by you. The time to plan is NOW!

A smart first step in the direction of your ultimate ambition is to keep informed on world happenings and current events. There is no better way to do this than by reading your local newspapers . . . the Daily Press and The Times Herald. Be informed . . . by reading . . .

More than fifty years have passed since the inevitable step was taken which transferred a sprawling tidewater village into the dignified status of a city of the first class in the Commonwealth of Virginia.

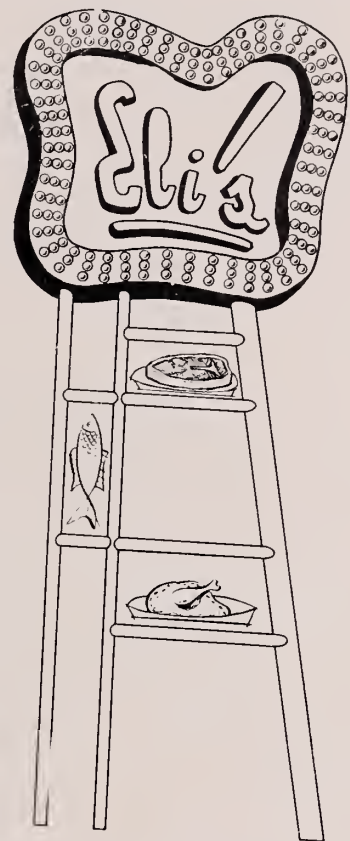

Its past has been illustrious. But our justified pride in past accomplishments must not dim our eyes to the fact there is much left to do in the future.

We hope so. Because we have interesting jobs for "special" gals here at the telephone company.

If you're alert and like people, you'll like it here. The surroundings are pleasant, the pay is good right from the start—and you'll have lots of opportunity for advancement and raises.

There's a "special" extra, too. You'll have that wonderful feeling of making an important contribution to your community. Come talk to us about telephone work. We'd love to meet you!

A CREED FOR AMERICAN YOUTH

I resolve to let no time or opportunities slip unused by me; that in small things I will strive to do the best that I can in order that the big opportunities of the future will find me qualified. I realize that my future is an enlargement of the present. What I do in my high school years will make me stronger in character that I may help to make a stronger America.
